24th International Conference on Emergency Medicine
Montreal Canada, May 24 - 28

A Message to our Industry Partners

On behalf of the Organizing Committee of the 24th International Conference on Emergency Medicine (ICEM2025), we are delighted to invite you to participate in the Conference which will take place at the Palais des Congrès de Montréal, Quebec on May 25 to 28, 2025. We anticipate over 3,000 physicians and allied health professionals from all over the world to join this remarkable event.

The Scientific Committee will prepare an excellent mix of plenary lectures, keynote speeches, symposia, and industry sessions. We will include an up-to-date series of emergency medicine sessions, such as telemedicine, artificial intelligence, field medicine, and emerging infectious diseases, etc. We will invite experts and scholars to provide multiple programs to achieve multi-disciplinary, multi-cultural solutions to help solve emergency medicine challenges at both the global and local levels. The collective wisdom of the experts in emergency medicine from all over the world can be shared and disseminated faster than ever in the areas of health policy, clinical practice, research, and medical education.

ICEM2025 will deliver an academic and social program that will contain education, stimulation as well as social entertainment.

We invite you to be our partner as a Conference Sponsor. Sponsorship opportunities include both packages and singular items. ICEM2025 is a unique opportunity to expand brand recognition to your target market both nationally and internationally.

Thank you for your consideration and support. Together, ICEM2025 will be an exceptional opportunity for learning, networking and collaboration. We look forward to welcoming you in Montreal, Quebec.

Canadian Association of Emergency Physicians (CAEP)

As the national voice of emergency medicine (EM), the Canadian Association of Emergency Physicians provides continuing medical education, advocates on behalf of emergency physicians and their patients, supports research and strengthens the EM community. In co-operation with other specialties and committees, CAEP also plays a vital role in the development of national standards and clinical guidelines.

CAEP keeps Canadian emergency physicians informed of developments in the clinical practice of EM and addresses political and societal changes, that affect the delivery of emergency health care.

International Federation for Emergency Medicine (IFEM)

The International Federation for Emergency Medicine is a global membership-based organization promoting high quality emergency medical care for all people. Our purpose is to promote access to, and lead the development of, the highest quality of emergency medical care for all people across the world.

IFEM is committed to achieving universal access to high quality emergency medical care, through education and standards, supporting growth of the specialty of emergency medicine in every country, and strong advocacy with governments, global health organizations, and communities.

IFEM's strong networks and collegial membership provides us with unique insight and reach into health systems globally with the ability to rapidly harness expertise and draw global teams together to work on any project or emergency medical care challenge.

About ICEM

Emergency medicine has become the most rapid growing medical specialty over the past few decades. The globalization and localization trend raised diverse challenges. Quality emergency medicine is a universal human right and the main concern of emergency physicians worldwide. ICEM2025 aims at facilitating international networking, to narrow the emergency medicine development gaps through the sharing of experiences and collaboration of expertise.

ICEM2025 intends to achieve multi-disciplinary, multi-culture solutions to solve emergency medicine challenges at global and local levels. Comprehensive sections and workshops on diverse emergency medicine fields are organized, making use of information technology, internet, social media, and free open access medicine (FOAM). The collective wisdom of ICEM members from all over the world can be shared and disseminated faster than ever.

Our family of emergency medicine values both diversity and collaboration. We can achieve emergency medicine excellence collectively through incorporating global wisdom and proposing local solutions.

REASONS TO BECOME A SPONSOR

HEIGHTENED VISIBILITY

You will have significant exposure prior to the conference through the website and marketing materials. There is no better way to expose your organization to the emergency medicine and health professionals community around the world.

STAND OUT FROM THE CROWD

Create a unique and dynamic presence in your exhibit space. Showcase your organization and what you offer to delegates from North America and around the world.

MEET WITH KEY CLIENTS AND BUSINESS PARTNERS FACE TO FACE

Have you missed getting together in a room to talk face to face? This conference will give you limitless opportunities to meet and move forward with your business partners.

STRENGTHEN YOUR BRAND IN THE MARKET

Aligning your company with this powerful educational and international experience demonstrates your commitment to assisting professional development within emergency medicine and further strengthens your brand within the National and International EM Community.

NETWORK IN AN EDUCATIONAL AND SOCIAL ENVIRONMENT

Networking develops quality business relationships by having direct one to one engagement in a relaxed environment. Meet at one of our many social events, in the exhibit hall, or online from across the globe.
